

QUANTA

Online Form Fill

Improve the quality and quantity of online applications using Quanta Property Data.

55 million policy purchases are abandoned each year during the application process. By pre-populating your online application forms using our proprietary Quanta Property Data, it will not only give you more accurate information but will greatly improve the customer experience.

A fully customisable data set is provided which has over 500 variables on 29 million homes in Great Britain. Key variables such as; property value, year built, number of bathrooms, roof type plus energy and efficiency attributes are available. We can also provide a Home Insurance Rebuild Cost variable.

Our data is GDPR compliant with trackable known provenance and instantly accessible via API. We provide full transparency on modelled vs non-modelled data and all modelled features are accompanied by confidence scores, enabling you to decide which variables you want to include.

Online Form Fill helps your business:

- improve the customer experience
- pre-populate the Home Insurance Rebuild Cost field
- reduce form abandonment
- cut acquisition costs.
